The Lowry Beer Garden is the hangout of choice for young families in east Denver — and with good reason. The phrase “beer garden” is often misapplied to simple patios and decks, but here almost every seat is outdoors, and even the indoor seating is covered by only a vaulted roof with roll-up siding for walls. Stay late after all the kids go home, and you’ll have a prime spot for enjoying Colorado’s clear and crisp nights. The Lowry Beer Garden is nestled in its very own park with more than 9,000 square feet of outdoor garden area, vast open-air seating, and an inviting covered pavilion. The communal Oktoberfest-style picnic tables that collectively can accommodate up to 500 guests, foster an environment of community and conviviality. The Garden offers a thoughtful draft and bottled beer selection with a focus on Colorado and handcrafted brews. The Lowry Beer Garden also serves up your favorite casual fare with locally-made gourmet brats & sausages, freshly-baked pretzels, house-ground burgers, hand-cut fries and chef-created salads. Children Policies Lowry Beer Garden prides itself on fostering a family-friendly atmosphere. However, in order to provide a safe and comfortable environment for all our guests, we ask that children remain seated with their parents. Additionally, we ask that there is no running, playing in the gravel or flower beds, yelling or excessive noise. Dogs Well behaved dogs are allowed on the patio only. Dogs must be leashed and attended to at all times. No digging, barking or jumping permitted. Please make sure to clean up after your pet.
