hippocampus is a structure found in all vertebrates. In Alzheimer's disease (and other forms of dementia), the hippocampus is one of the first regions of the brain to suffer damage; short-term memory loss and disorientation are included among the early symptoms. Damage to the hippocampus can also result from oxygen starvation, encephalitis or medial temporal lobe epilepsy. Since different neuronal cell types are neatly organized into layers in the hippocampus, it has frequently been used as a model system for studying neurophysiology. burial was a 1983 mass burial of unsold video game cartridges, consoles, and computers undertaken by the American video game cartridges, consoles, and computer company Atari, Inc., at a landfill site in the U.S. state of New Mexico. The burial occurred amid the video game crash of 1983, at the end of a disastrous fiscal year that saw Atari being sold off by its parent company Warner Communications. It included 700,000 cartridges of various games, including unsold copies of E.T. the Extra-Terrestrial (1982), one of the largest video game failures in history. For several decades after the burial was first reported, there were doubts as to its veracity and scope, and it was frequently dismissed as an urban legend. In 2013 and 2014, an excavation was carried out by Fuel Industries, Microsoft, the New Mexico government and others, which revealed discarded games and hardware. Only a small fraction, about 1,300 cartridges, were recovered, with a portion reserved for curation and the rest auctioned to raise money for a museum to commemorate the burial. This photograph shows packaging for cartridges of the video games E.T. and Centipede in situ at the excavation site.  and the environment. The European colonization of the Americas and other parts of the world intensified and associated mass migrations of people grew in size as part of the Atlantic Ocean, while declining in Russia[1] and China.[2]Western historians have occasionally defined the 18th century otherwise for the purposes of their work. For example, the "short" 18th century may be defined as 17151789, denoting the period of time between the death of Louis XIV of France and the start of the French Revolution, with an emphasis on directly interconnected events.[3][4] To historians who expand the century to include larger historical movements, the "long" 18th century[5] may run from the Glorious Revolution of 1688 to the Battle of Waterloo in 1815[6] or even later.[7] France was the sole world superpower from 1659, after it defeated Spain, until 1815, when it was defeated by Britain and its coalitions following the Napoleonic Wars. In Europe, philosophers ushered in the Age of Enlightenment. This period coincided with the French Revolution of 1789, and was later compromised by the excesses of the Reign of Terror. At first, many monarchies of Europe embraced Enlightenment ideals, but in the wake of the French Revolution they feared loss of power and formed broad coalitions to oppose the French Republic in the French Revolutionary Wars. Various conflicts throughout the century, including the War of the Spanish Succession and the Seven Years' War, saw Great Britain triumph over its rivals to become the preeminent power in Europe. However, Britain's attempts to exert its authority over the Thirteen Colonies became a catalyst for the American Revolution. The 18th century also marked the end of the PolishLithuanian Commonwealth as an independent state. Its semi-democratic government system was not robust enough to prevent partition by the neighboring states of Austria, Prussia, and Russia. In West Asia, Nader Shah led Persia in successful military campaigns. The Ottoman Empire experienced a period of peace, taking no part in European wars from 1740 to 1768. As a result, the empire was not exposed to Europe's military improvements during the Seven Years' War. The Ottoman military consequently lagged behind and suffered several defeats against Russia in the second half of the century. In South Asia, the death of Mughal emperor Aurangzeb was followed by the expansion of the Maratha Confederacy and an increasing level of European influence and control in the region. In 1739, Persian emperor Nader Shah invaded and plundered Delhi, the capital of the Mughal Empire. Later, his general Ahmad Shah Durrani scored another victory against the Marathas, the then dominant power in India, in the Third Battle of Panipat in 1761.[8] By the middle of the century, the Anglo-Mysore Wars against Tipu Sultan and his father Hyder Ali, led to Company rule over the south.[10][11]In East Asia, the century was marked by the High Qing era, a period characterized by significant cultural and territorial expansion. This period also experienced relative peace and prosperity, allowing for societal growth, increasing literacy rates, flourishing trade, and consolidating imperial power across the vast Qing dynasty's territories. Conversely, the continual seclusion policy of the Tokugawa shogunate also brought a peaceful era called Pax Tokugawa and experienced a flourishment of the arts as well as scientific knowledge and advancements, which were introduced to Japan through the Dutch East India Company established increasing levels of control over the Mataram Sultanate. In Africa, the Ethiopian Empire underwent the Zemene Mesafint, a period when the country was ruled by a class of regional noblemen and the emperor was merely a figure head. The Atlantic slave trade also saw the continued involvement of states such as the Oyo Empire In Oceania, the European colonization of Australia and New Zealand began during the late half of the century. In the Americas, the United States declared its independence from Great Britain. In 1776, Thomas Jefferson wrote the Declaration of Independence from Great Britain.

TV schedule is going to look like. CBS has revealed its upcoming fall lineup and itll be a mix of returning favorites as well as a handful of new shows for its 2022-2023 TV season that kicks off in the fall. CBS staples like NCIS, Young Sheldon and The Amazing Race are all set to return for brand new seasons, as are shows that debuted as part of the 2021-2022 TV season, including Ghosts, which CBS lineup is actually going to pair the networks two hit comedies, as Ghosts is going to move to a new time at 8:30 pm ET/PT, immediately following Young Sheldon at 8 pm ET/PT, in what is being billed as a comedy power hour. You may like Some other new seasons of Survivor and The Amazing Race at 8 and 9 pm ET/PT, respectively, followed by the new reality series The Real Love Boat, which brings singles together on a cruise inspired by the sitcom The Love Boat. There are three other new shows coming to CBS this fall: So Help Me Todd, Fire Country and East New York. So Help Me Todd is a new drama that stars Marcia Gay Harden and Skylar Astin, with Harden playing a meticulous attorney who hires her aimless son (Astin) as her law firms in-house investigator. So Help Me Todd is going to air on Thursdays at 9 pm ET/PT. Fire Country centers on an unconventional prison release program where they work with elite firefighters to extinguish massive wildfires in the Northern California region. Former SEAL Team star Max Thieriot is on board as the star for Fire Country, which has landed a Friday at 9 pm ET/PT spot, one previously occupied by the cancelled Magnum P.I.The latest updates, reviews and unmissable series to watch and more! East New York sees the producers of NYPD Blue tell the story of Deputy Inspector Regina Haywood (Amanda Warren), the new boss of the 74th precinct in East New York, which is in the midst of social upheaval and the early seeds of gentrification. East New York is set to air on Sundays at 9 pm ET/PT.CBS announced one other new show to its roster for the 2022-2023 season, True Lies. Inspired by the Arnold Schwarzenegger/lames Cameron movie of the same name, True Lies is going to premiere during mid-season on CBS.While were still waiting on specific premiere dates, here is the full CBS fall 2022 TV schedule:Monday8 pm: The Neighborhood8:30 pm: Bob Hearts Abishola9 pm: NCIS10 pm: NCIS10 pm: NCIS10 pm: NCIS10 pm: FBI: International10 planning your viewing habits for the fall TV season, so TVLine as is tradition has compiled a day-by-day, hour-by-hour grid of the primetime schedules, as shown below (and detailed at their hyperlinked network names). NEW programming for the 2022-23 TV season is listed in the colorRED. MIDSEASON LAUNCHESfor each network, as announced, are listed beneath the grid. Want scoop on any of these shows? Its never too early to ask! (Except when it is.) Email InsideLine. Check it out, print it, laminate it, mark it

(Updated 6/23)HELD FOR MIDSEASON (RANDOM IN-FLUX GAME SHOWS LA SUPERMARKET SWEEP NOT NECESSARILY INCLUDED) ABC: A Million Little Things, American Idol, The Bachelor, Judge Steve Harvey, NOT DEAD YET and The Wonder Years CBS: LINGO, Secret Celebrity

The broadcast networks that have released their fall schedules have so far opted to tweak around the margins of their lineups rather than do a full overhaul. CBS is following suit. The network, which is wrapping its 14th consecutive season as the most watched broadcaster, will introduce four new series to start the 2022-23 season. Three nights (Monday, Tuesday and Saturday) remain untouched from this season, and one new show will debut on Wednesday which will feature an all-unscripted lineup Thursday, Friday and Sunday. For about 20 years weve tried to do that, CBS Entertainment president Kelly Kahl said of the networks preference for stability in primetime. Its also a good problem to have. When you have four of the five top dramas [in total viewers] and the four top comedies, you can be smart and strategic at the same time. The biggest change for CBS is the scaling back of its Thursday comedy slate to one hour, after nine years of a two-hour block on that night. First-year breakout Ghosts will move back a half-hour to 8:30 p.m., following Young Sheldon. The 9 p.m. hour goes to first-year series So Help Me Todd, a legal drama with some comic elements, while CSI: Vegas moves into the 10 p.m. spot vacated by the retiring Bull. The original CSI occupied that time period for much of its 15-season run earlier this century. CBS will launch a full night of reality programming on Wednesdays, with network staples Survivor and The Amazing Race leading into The Real Love Boat, a dating show set aboard a cruise ship. The other new series are Fire Country, a first-responder drama that goes into the canceled Magnum P.I.s Friday slot, and police show East New York. It will air between The Equalizer and NCIS: Los Angeles on Sundays. CBS has one new scripted series, a TV adaptation of True Lies, and several unscripted shows (including Tough As Nails and Secret Celebrity Renovation) on deck for later in the season. CBS fall schedule is below. New series are in italics. 7 p.m. 7:30 p.m. 8; 20 p.m. 10;

The groundbreaking hit series SURVIVOR, hosted by Jeff Probst, kicks off the night at 8:00 PM. At 9:00 PM. Set aboard a luxury cruise ship in the Mediterranean, the show caps an exhilarating night of unscripted television. NEW SHOW: THE REAL LOVE BOAT (Wednesday, 10:00-11:00 PM)The new reality romance adventure THE REAL LOVE BOAT brings singles together to travel the Mediterranean on a luxury cruise ship while looking for love. Destination dates, challenges and surprise singles will test the couples compatibility and chemistry. Like the beloved original scripted series, the indispensable crew members, will play pivotal roles in the matchmaking and navigation of the romantic (and sometimes turbulent) waters ahead. After almost a month at sea, only one winning couple will make it to the final port and take home a cash prize plus a once-in-a-lifetime trip courtesy of Princess Cruises, the series exclusive cruise line partner. Thursdays #1 scripted schedule kicks off the night with a power hour of comedy and adds a humorous new drama, followed by CSI: VEGAS. YOUNG SHELDON, televisions #1 new comedy/series and breakout hit GHOSTS, in its new time slot at 8:30 PM. These top comedies form a powerful launch pad for a witty new drama, SO HELP ME TODD, at 9:00 PM, starring Oscar winner Marcia Gay Harden and Skylar Astin as an attorney and private detective team who are also mother and son. At 10:00 PM, the second season of CSI: VEGAS, the sequel to the Networks global hit CSI: Crime Scene Investigation, moves to its new night after improving its time period in viewers this season by double-digit percentage points, to cap the evening. NEW SHOW: SO HELP ME TODD (Thursday, 9:00-10:00 PM)stars Academy Award winner Marcia Gay Harden and Skylar Astin as razor-sharp, meticulous attorney Margaret Wright (Harden) and Todd (Astin), her talented but scruffy, aimless son whom she hires as her law firms in-house investigator. As the black sheep of the well-heeled Wright family, Todd is a laid-back, quick-thinking, excellent former private detective who fell on hard times after his flexible interpretation of the law is at complete odds with Todds scrappy methods of finding his way through sticky situations: by the seat of his wrinkled pants. When Todd inadvertently teams with his mother on a case, shes surprised to find herself duly impressed by and proud of his crafty ability to sleuth out information with his charm and his wide-ranging tech savvy. At last, Margaret sees a way to put her son on a suitable path to living an adult, financially solvent life she approves of, and she asks him to join her firm. Todd agrees, since it means getting his license back and once again doing the job he excels at and loves. Mother and son working together is a big first step toward mending their fragile, dysfunctional relationship, and they may even come away with a better understanding of each other at this pivotal point in their lives. But whether Todd and Margaret will be able to accept each other for who they are is another case entirely. CBS most dominant night adds a hot new drama from Jerry Bruckheimer.
