The game is alright, but there are a few downsides. Firstly, you need to be pretty good at the game to get a decent amount of money each round, otherwise you won't have many chances of getting new weapons soon. Secondly, the only way to get skins for your gun or suit is by having gold and you can either buy it or watch videos to get 5 gold. If you really want skins, you have to go through the pain of watching a lot of videos if you don't wanna pay money, or just do without. Also, if you get enough gold to buy a crate and open it, it's not a guarantee that you'll get a skin for your existing gun. If you get a skin for a gun you already have, you will have to unlock that gun before using the skin. (Note: the skin does not unlock the gun). And what's also frustrating is that you can't use a good skin you like on say your favorite gun until you unlock it for that specific gun. I'm not too obsessed with skins but it's still pretty cool to have some. You can't get any by doing missions or challenges. (3) It takes a while to get used to, especially since there are some dedicated players who are like pros at it. And (4) they only have one fire button so it's harder to shoot and aim at the same time, if they had two fire buttons, one on each side, then you could use one for shooting while moving and one when really focusing your shots. Overall, if you give it some time, this game is pretty fun once you get used to it. Thanks, we're glad you are enjoying the game. Secondly, better UI, the current one looks horrendous and some buttons look cropped. Thirdly, make it in offline mode it ACTUALLY pauses. And finally, fix the settings bc WHY DO I HAVE TO GO INTO A MATCH TO CUSTOMIZE MY HUD???? pls follow these138 people found this review helpfulDid you find this helpful?too many dislikes for me about this game. It seems very much like you play only or mainly bots, in which the botsI had mixed feelings about playing Bullet Force. The game is fun, but I like its mechanics and gun sounds, plus maps are quite big and thoughtful. However, I find it feels incomplete and unfinished. The main menu interface is messy, fonts, outlook, and UI aren't good enough either. Maps seem fan-made, unlike Forward Assault which is way more polished and professional. The guns are overpriced. Recently, the game asked me to sign in again after installing a new update, but it broke the game for me. My deagle and BRT HS1 have been weak, and some sights don't even show red dot.
